Between the 15 February and 26 February 2010 the Carillion Building team at The Bulwell Academy project hosted a Prince's Trust Get into Construction Course.

The Prince's Trust Get into programme aims to give people aged 16 to 25 who are unemployed, the chance to train and get work experience in a variety of industries including construction.

On the last day, those who completed course, were presented with a certificate by Michael Rowen, High Sheriff of Nottinghamshire (he has since handed over the post) and former County Chairman of The Prince's Trust and Chair of the Governing Body of Nottingham University Samworth Academy.
